There will be a short introduction to the collection and then an opportunity to look more closely at a representative selection of about 25 objects, including basketry, textiles and wooden items. This is a rare and not to be missed opportunity and numbers are limited to 30 people.

The programme for the morning is as follows:

10.30am Arrival for coffee and biscuits (own transport)
11.00- Study event to take place in the Lord Mayors Room
12.30

At the conclusion of the session you may wish to view the Arts and Crafts Gallery and the World Arts Gallery, where a number of items from the collection are on display.
